

Dortmund International Research Conference 2016

June 24 – 25, 2015, in Dortmund, Germany

Call for Papers

Organized by:

Dortmund University of Applied
Sciences and Arts

European Master of Project
Management

Ruhr Master School of Applied
Engineering

Invitation:

The main goal of the Dortmund International Research Conference is to provide a forum for reports, discussions and workshops on international aspects of science, research and teaching. The conference is focused on research fields supported by colleagues from different faculties at the University of Applied Sciences and Arts in Dortmund and at partner universities. The conference is a forum for collaborating researchers and their master and ph.d. students - a forum to present and discuss recent results and trends. The conference consists of several modules - and most topics are in some connection with the European Master in Project Management - EuroMPM - implemented in Dortmund, Bilbao, Trondheim and Kaunas, and coming soon in Kiev and Ternopil. Conference language is English. We plan to submit conference proceedings for all participants - and abstracts on a web site. The conference is free of fees.

Conference Streams and Topics

The planned scope of the conference is:

- Quality management and sustainable project management
- Project-oriented Business
- Project Management and Education
- IT & Engineering Projects
- ICT, Embedded Systems, Automotive Software

You are welcome to propose additional topics and special streams. The conference language is English.

Submission

Prospective authors are invited to submit an extended abstract of 3-4 pages (in English only). A template for the abstract is available on:
